Louis Latour White wines

- 96 Louis Latour Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru « Les Demoiselles »
This 0.51-hectare parcel has been part of the Louis Latour portfolio since 1913, and has never tasted better as a young wine in my experience. Fermented in new oak, as all the négociant's top whites are, this has appealing vanilla spice and toast aromas, sappy, mouth-watering acidity and considerable weight. Delicious. 2021-30 (UK)
- 95 Louis Latour Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru
The Latour holdings are in Le Clos Poirier on the Puligny side of the Grand Cru with, unusually, north- to south-facing rows. Fermented in new oak, though not excessively marked by it, this is a sumptuous yet well balanced Bâtard, all smoky richness, subtle reduction and palate-cleansing acidity. 2021-28 (UK)
- 94 Louis Latour Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru
Louis Latour have some of the largest holdings in the Grand Cru at 10.5 hectares, all of them on south-east facing slopes on the Aloxe-Corton side. This is showing a little too much oak right now, but has sufficient texture, weight and underlying acidity to absorb it over the next year or two. Always reliable. 2020-28 (UK)
- 94 Louis Latour Puligny-Montrachet 1<sup>er</sup> Cru « La Garenne »
As it was in 2015, this is one the most exciting whites in the Latour portfolio, made with purchased grapes from one of Puligny's higher and cooler sites. It really bears the stamp of its terroir: fresh, stylish and pithy with focused, citrus-tinged flavours, some chalky freshness and real verve. 2019-24 (UK)
- 93 Louis Latour Puligny-Montrachet Premier Cru Sous Le Puits
- 93 Louis Latour Chassagne-Montrachet Premier Cru La Grande Montagne
- 92 Louis Latour Meursault Premier Cru Château de Blagny
- 91 Louis Latour Pernand-Vergelesses Premier Cru En Caradeux

Tim Atkin. UK. January 2018.
