Description

Situated to the south-west of Santenay, the Maranges appellation is at the southernmost tip of the Côte de Beaune. The Pinot Noir vineyards are planted on well-exposed south-east facing slopes, and the wines thrive on the heavy clay soil. The wines tend to be firm and tannic when young. Maranges has an excellent capacity for ageing with fine structure and intensity of a Pinot Noir fruit character.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Our Maranges 2013 reveals a ruby color and a fruity nose with notes of raspberry, strawberry and blackcurrant. The mouth is round with aromas of blackcurrant and undergrowth. This wine offers beautiful mellow tannins on the finish.
