Description

"Clos des Toisières" used to be a small quarry. 'Toisières' is derived from the word 'toit' (roof), and refers to the huge flat stones coming from this quarry sometimes used as roofs. Maison Louis Latour has the monopoly on this climat situated on the higher south-east facing slopes in the pretty little village of Monthélie, hidden away between the vineyards of Meursault and Volnay.

Wine tasting

- TASTING NOTE Our Monthélie 1er Cru 'Clos des Toisières' Blanc 2022 has a bright and pale gold colour. The nose offers hints of ripe fruit, while the palate reveals notes of yellow fruit and sap. This is a pleasant wine with great roundness and freshness.
